Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Japanese document 2002-326881(machine translation is provided), for reasons of record.

Applicants' argument that the Japanese document fails to teach a moisture content of less than .1% and where the micro balloons are calcined at 300°C is not persuasive in overcoming the rejection. The Japanese document, page 4 of translation paragraph [0009] teaches calcining at 1300°C, which according to applicants' disclosure would provide the claimed moisture content.

3. Claims 1-8,10,11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Inoue et al (4,871,693 and 4,698,317, each taken alone) for reasons of record.

Applicants' argument that Inoue et al fails to provide micro balloons containing Al_2O_3 and SiO_2 and a moisture content of .1 wt% is not persuasive. In the examples it is shown that the micro balloons contain both Al_2O_3 and SiO_2 and are formed at a temperature of 880-1410°C, which would yield the claimed moisture content. It is agreed that the micro balloons contain MgO but they also contain Al_2O_3 and SiO_2 . The instant claims do not exclude glass or amorphous micro balloons.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1755

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
